Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Staff Sergeant Todd A. Moss' dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Staff Sergeant Moss has devoted over 20 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a Cook and leader in the Mess Section, including service in Iraq, Kuwait, and many state activations in support of the Blizzard and Flood operations; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Staff Sergeant Moss continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Staff Sergeant Todd A. Moss for over 20 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 21, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

STAFF SERGEANT TODD A. MOSS DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor
